MORE ABOUT THE CITY CHARTER

Discussed Pro And Con Last Night.

Court House Packed With People Anxious to Have More Light on the Subject—The Opposition To An Election of Commissioners by the People—With One Exception No Suggestions As to How It Could Be Improved.

The court house was literally packed with people last night, all anxious to hear the proposed commission plan of government discussed. The meeting lasted from eight until half past 11 o'clock and nearly everybody remained until the close. The last words spoken were an appeal to the people to go to Raleigh today to protest against the formation of Piedmont county, this being made by Mr. E. G. Sherrill.

The charter was discussed pro and con, speeches being made by Messrs. J. J. Brandt, R. D. Douglas and E. J. Justice in favor of the charter and by Messrs. E. A. Brown, H. L. Coble and R. C. Strudwick in opposition to the measure as proposed. The trend of the opposition seemed to be to the election of the commissioners by the people instead of by a Board of Aldermen. They said if this was done they would favor the charter. Mr. E. A. Brown offered an amendment to subsection Y of Section 26 regarding the annual appropriation to commercial organizations for advertising the city, but with this exception no suggestions were offered. This was not voted upon but Mr. Justice, speaking for the charter committee, stated that he would have this amendment made if that would give any relief.

Mayor Stafford called the meeting to order and called on Mr. Brandt, who spoke of the charter drawn by the aldermen two years ago, providing for a Board of Aldermen and these to elect commissioners, which was unanimously voted down at a mass meeting. He then told of the work of drafting the new charter now under discussion.

Mr. R. D. Douglas followed Mr. Brandt and he stated that it was a sound business proposition and not a scheme devised in the dark with the intention of fooling anyone. He said it was not perfect and neither was the present charter perfect as it was continually being amended. As for the people not being able to select good men he referred to the fact that they were competent to select county, state and national officials and he saw no reason why they could not select good city officials. He referred to the record of the Water and Light Commission as to the benefits that would be received under the commission plan.

Mr. Justice then explained the conditions under which the charter was drawn and explained the initiative and referendum and recall, setting forth the facts that it was not perfect, but the advocates were not only willing but anxious to cure the defects pointed out if suggestions as to how this could be done were made. He referred to the amendments regarding the bonding of the mayor and the section regarding tax assessments now being drawn, which would be passed before Tuesday.

Mr. E. A. Brown said he objected because of the provision of the election of the commissioners by the people instead of by a board of aldermen. He cited six factions, three opposing and three favoring the charter. He said there were numerous sections he was opposed to, some being that there was no check on the commissioners and the recall would only be abused if used at all. He said any man who did his duty was liable to be recalled. And too it limited the commissioners to residents of the city and there were no capable men to be had in the city. He also opposed subsection Y of section 26 and offered an amendment in effect the same, but stating that the commissioners could if they saw fit make an appropriation or gift to organizations, such as Chamber of Commerce, Board of Trade, police department, fire department, there being no limit to said appropriation.

Mr. H. L. Coble stated that he was not used to making speeches, but he made a rousing speech of more than half an hour. He said he was honestly opposed to the charter because he felt it was not best for the city. He wanted to assist in making the charter the best possible for he wanted to see the city continue to grow and he did not believe it would do so were the charter adopted. He declared that there would continually be wrangling and fussing under the initiative, referendum and recall. He did not believe the body should be legislative and administrative. He said the corporations elect a board of directors. These elect the officers, he said. He said it was too expensive a thing for Greensboro, but it ought to be on a smaller scale. He favored aldermen and commissioners elected by that body. He stated that the Chamber of Commerce had tried to run the charter over the people without letting them know of its provisions. That it had not been the intentions of the committee to let the people vote on the matter, but had been forced into it. He urged that the charter be voted down.

Judge Strudwick said he was opposed to the principle of the charter and believed the people would regret it if adopted. He admitted that he had not read the charter, but declared that he had gathered that it took from the people direct representation.

Mr. B. B. Bouldin read a letter from Staunton, Va., citing how a different kind of commission government was working there.

Mr. E. G. Sherrill stated that he was opposed to the plan because it was undemocratic. He said it had been said that he was opposed to it because he was tax collector under the aldermen, but he declared that by keeping his mouth shut he stood a chance of getting a position under the commission plan.

Mr. Justice then took up the points set forth by the opposition, but as it was then 11 o'clock did not go into details. He explained that two years ago the people had voted down the plan to elect aldermen and let them elect commissioners, so if a commission plan was to be adopted he saw no other way other than to adopt the plan as proposed. He said he would be glad to assist in remedying any defects either before or after the charter is voted on. He also set forth the fact that the aldermen were contemplating amendments that would give each member $6 for each regular and $2.50 for each special meeting. They would not do any better work at present. He said he had no criticism to make of the city officials for they were not at fault, it was the system.

Mr. Brown began to put another question, but the people here got in a restless mood and began making for the door by the scores. Seeing that it was useless to proceed Mr. Brown did not finish his question, but Mr. Sherrill did hold the crowd long enough to urge them to go to Raleigh today.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR.

Society of Grace Church to Hold Anniversary Service Thursday Night.

Next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock the thirtieth anniversary of the organization of Christian Endeavor will be celebrated at Grace church. The first society was organized in Portland, Me., on Feb. 2, 1881. The founder of this society, Dr. Francis E. Clark, is still living, and is the active head of the Christian Endeavor movement.

The society of Grace church has secured the services of Rev. Howard E. Rondthaler, president of Salem Female College, for the address. A special musical program is being prepared. The young people of all denominations, and all others interested in young people's work, are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. Rondthaler is the son of Bishop Rondthaler of the Moravian church. He was at one time president of the State Christian Endeavor Union, and is an able speaker. Several years ago he preached the commencement sermon at the State Normal College, upon the invitation of the late Dr. McIver, and the young people of the city are fortunate in that they will have this opportunity to hear him next Thursday.

Brother-In-Law Dead.

Mr. John W. Knight has received a telegram informing him of the death of his brother-in-law, Mr. John F. McKnight, which occurred in Bonney, Kansas, Saturday night. The deceased has two brothers and two sisters living in Guilford, he having left here about 20 years ago.

"Family Altar Day."

In the city churches Sunday morning the ministers preached sermons on the importance of family worship in the homes. The sermons were able efforts and will no doubt cause a number of family altars to be established. Each parent will be asked to assist by having family worship each day.

THE PIEDMONT COUNTY HEARING

The Delegations in Raleigh Today.

Legislative Committees Will Have Both Sides of Matter Presented at Hearing This Afternoon—Special Train From High Point—Big Delegation From Randolph—Special Coach For Benefit of County Opponents.

Today is the time fixed for the hearing of the Piedmont county proposition before the committees on counties, cities and towns of the senate and house and strong delegations representing both sides of the matter will be on hand and the committees will doubtless get plenty of light on the subject from every standpoint and some thrown in for good measure.

The van guard of the two delegations went to Raleigh yesterday afternoon and it is expected that several hundred will go down this morning. The delegation opposing the new county from Guilford has applied for a special coach to be attached to train No. 108, leaving here at 7:30, and the block ticket rate will be in vogue. A committee of three hundred was appointed Saturday, but it is hardly probable that more than fifty will go down to attend the hearing.

On the afternoon train yesterday were a number of prominent citizens of Randolph county, going down to oppose the formation of the county by dismembering Randolph. The people of that county are very much opposed to the proposition and will put up a strong fight.

The High Point advocates have chartered a special train and this will pass here about eight o'clock this morning, the Greensboro delegation being slightly in the advance. It is expected that fully a hundred High Point people will go down to uphold the contentions of the advocates of the movement that a new county is badly needed and that the High Point section of Guilford is not getting its just deserts from the county. For some time the advocates have maintained an expensive lobby in Raleigh, keeping several men in charge all the time.

It is estimated that the crowd of High Pointers going down for the purpose of making an impression on the legislature on behalf of the new county will number possibly as many as six hundred.

It is said that the wealthy men of High Point, particularly the real estate dealers whose property holdings would be enhanced as a result of the formation of the new county, have raised a large sum of money and chartered a special train on which people can go to Raleigh either for nothing or for a nominal sum.

Another interesting piece of news which has come from High Point is that the new county advocates are so bitter against Mr. Robert Brockett, who is fighting the new county proposition that they have, or some of them have, started a movement to try to bring about a boycott of his business. Mr. Brockett does a large wholesale business, dealing principally in heavy groceries.

It was learned that as soon as Mr. Brockett found out that there was a movement on foot to boycott his business, he caught the first train for Raleigh in order to be on the ground early and get in some more of his telling work against the new county, the formation of which he believes unwise and unnecessary.

Greensboro will send a good-sized delegation for the same purpose, though there is danger that its delegation will suffer, so far as numbers go, by comparison with that of High Point.

However, those who oppose the new county movement state that there is but little chance of a new county being formed as they have figures to show that it would be a pauper county and Republican in politics. They will also show that it would greatly impair the educational conditions in the western section of the county by cutting up the districts as at present formed, especially as to Jamestown High school; they will also show they say, that the new county could not afford to give the educational advantages the people of Guilford are now enjoying for several years, if ever. As to the accessibility of the present court house Guilford's good roads and railway facilities to and from High Point will speak for themselves, once the matter is called to the attention of the committees.

A LETTER FROM CEDAR RAPIDS

How Commission Plan Worked There.

Mr. C. A. Hines Gets Letter From Lawyer of Iowa City Who States That Commission Plan There Was Not a Success—Explains Workings—Mr. Hines Expects Other Letters.

To the Editor:

I have always felt averse to "breaking into print," and I am aware of the fact that a man young in years is not given and is not entitled to the same consideration hearing that an older man is given. But I wish to be known as opposed to the commission form of government as provided for in our new charter, and any charge that I am trying to hide behind any one else is unfair to me and to others. It is true that my law partner is city attorney, but he decided long before the discussion on the proposed charter began not to be a candidate for reelection, and I certainly am not a candidate myself. So, what have I to conceal? No one has said, so far as I know, that Mayor Stafford, Judge Eure, Mr. Brandt and Mr. Justice want jobs, though they have a perfect right to be candidates, and some of them may be when the election comes off.

Before I read the new charter I was inclined to favor the plan. I attended part of the meetings last fall, and was favorably impressed. But, after further reflection and study of the printed charter, I decided that it would be unwise to adopt it. As a lawyer, I think it objectionable in a number of respects, and the number of amendments that have been found necessary since the legislature passed it carries to my mind the conviction that others feel the same way about it.

The mass meeting decided that the city would continue to pay for curbing, where property owners were required to put down sidewalks, as had been done in the past. This was left out. Sec. 70 is very ambiguous and dangerous. I am opposed to a commission plan that does not provide for a board of aldermen, school board, and water and light commission.

A few days ago I took a directory of lawyers and picked out the names of three lawyers in Cedar Rapids and three in Des Moines and asked them for an opinion on the plan as it works in those cities. I selected the names of men who were given the very highest rating. Tonight I received an answer from one of them, who is a member of the law firm of Rickel & Dennis, and a man 75 years of age. I had no idea what he or any one else would say; his name was selected at random. As fast as the other answers are received, I intend giving them to the newspapers no matter how favorable or unfavorable they may be. The men advocating the commission plan would have our people believe the system is faultless, and I do not believe such to be the case. Note what Mr. Rickel says with reference to the water works, as managed by commissioners, instead of our plan.

I have lived in Guilford county and Greensboro all my life and I do not feel that my friends will believe that I have anything to conceal or that I fear at any time to say how I feel on any subject.

Very respectfully,
CHARLES A. HINES.

Charles A. Hines, Esq.,
Attorney at Law,
Greensboro, N. C.

Dear Sir:—
Your favor of the 25th. instant at hand and contents noted.

The commission plan is in operation in this city, and has been for three years last past. I was one of its most enthusiastic advocates, and probably done as much as any other one man to procure its adoption by our city. I have had a most ample opportunity to watch its workings, and now I have to regret exceedingly that I ever supported it. I do not believe it is a good plan, for very many reasons: In the first place it puts too much power in the hands of a few men. The commissioners of our city seem to have divided up the work, and each of the four commissioners take a separate department to look after. Thereby dividing the responsibility. This plan don't work well. Of course in a few instances where you get superior men to fill these positions it is all right, but where you get weak men, then there is trouble. Now, here such a salary is paid to the commissioners and the mayor that they are required to give their undivided attention and time to the government of the city, and it seems to me that this is a vicious idea for it has had the operation here of causing these commissioners and mayor to spend all their time apparently in seeing how much taxes they can get out of the people, and how many improvements they can make, and the result is they are running the city in debt constantly. They have gone to extremes in both directions, both in assessing taxes and in expending money.

If you could always be sure of getting just the right kind of men to fill the various positions there would not be so much objection to the system, but if you happen to have a bad lot of their opportunities for mischief are infinitely greater than under the old system.

I have not the time or space to give you all the reasons, but suffice it to say that in my judgment the system is a failure, notwithstanding a great many cities are adopting it. I have watched its operation closely and if your people want to adopt a system that will enable the city government to pile up taxes to the utmost limit the commission plan is a good method of doing it. Taxes have steadily increased in the city here during the three years that this system has been in force.

Another thing I want to suggest to you, if you have the good of your city at heart have the city government let public utilities alone, and do not attempt to have the city own them. If you do you will be sorry for it. Take for instance our water works—the city was abitious to own the water works, which had been organized and operated by a private company for years; they finally succeeded in purchasing it and have been running it now for a number of years, and what is the result? We pay more for our water direct than we did before, while we have to pay taxes to pay the interest upon the indebtedness created by the purchase of the plant, and in addition to this the citizens are not accommodated as well as before nor is the courtesy shown them.

I was once a firm advocate of the public utilities being owned by municipalities but, if the Lord will forgive me, I will never vote for the purchase of another one. I have lived here 33 years and I have carefully noted these things. I am now 75 years of age and think that I can speak from observation and experience.

If I can give you any further information I shall be glad to do so.

Yours very truly,
HENRY RICKEL.

MUNICIPAL COURT.

Docket Yesterday Morning Was Largest For Some Time.

The docket in Municipal court yesterday was the largest Judge Eure has confronted for some time. However, the majority of the cases were trivial in nature and it did not take so long to dispose of them.

R. C. Robinson and A. A. Russel were fined $25 each and costs for gambling. W. C. Taylor, another defendant in the case, failed to show up and a capias was ordered issued. The defendants were arrested early Sunday morning.

G. W. Ackers, who was bound over from Justice Collins' court Saturday, was given a hearing on the charge of passing a worthless check, being acquitted of the charge.

Bud McRae was charged with trespass and assault. The case was continued until this morning.

Several drunks were fined.

Rummage Sale a Success.

The rummage sale held by the emergency fund committee of the Social Study Club, one of the Y. W. C. A. organizations, on Friday and Saturday was a success in every particular. Nearly $150 was cleared and this fund will be reserved for emergencies, such as sickness among Y. W. C. A. members and hospital fees; also to assist young women in taking summer vacations. The members of the committee that had the event in charge were Mesdames W. A. Hewitt, W. B. Vaught, Chas. Roberson, W. E. Blair, R. J. Mebane, Cummins Mebane, Lindsay Hopkins, F. P. Hobgood, C. G. Harrison, R. G. Sloan, C. I. Carlsson, Paul Schenck, R. P. Dicks.

STATE ASKED TO PAY THE COSTS

In Standard Oil Suit in Raleigh.

Amount to Several Hundred Dollars—Raleigh Consumers Benefit by Drop—Yesterday's Work in the Legislature Another Amendment to Greensboro's New City Charter.

Raleigh, Jan. 30.—The General Assembly is to be asked to provide for the payment of the costs in the case just terminated in the Raleigh Police court against the Standard Oil Co. in which the Standard was prosecuted at the instance of Attorney General T. W. Bickett for violation of the state antitrust law in cutting prices of oil here below the cost of getting the oil here in order to put the Indian Oil Co. out of business and then getting the prices back to high standard again. The suit failed in that the police justice ruled that the state failed to disprove the contention of the Standard that the prices in Raleigh were no lower than elsewhere and that they are due to over supply of oil. The costs in the case run up to several hundred dollars, there having been numerous witnesses here from a distance. A benefit that Raleigh consumers of oil may reap from the hearing is that retailers may now put down prices in proportion to the lower wholesale prices, a thing they say they have not done before because they expected the prices to rise again just as soon as "the war was over." The contention of the Standard that there is no war and that the prices are down to stay indefinitely leaves them no excuse to hold the prices up longer.

The Senate.

President Newland convened the Senate at 12 o'clock, Rev. Mr. Eubanks offering prayer.

Amend the charter of Greensboro, (curing defect in charter ratified January 17th.

Martin of Buncombe: Establish teachers' training school in Western North Carolina; also fix the time of holding courts in the 15th district. (The school bill provides an appropriation of $25,000 and $10,000 to maintain it.

The House.

Speaker Down convened the House at noon, prayer being offered by Rev. Mr. Farmer, of Raleigh.

Spainhour: Resolution with reference to state employees. Provides that there be appointed a committee of five members to investigate the pay received by the clerks in the state offices and recommend such reductions as will put them on a more equitable basis as compared with the teachers and college professors in the state. The resolution recites that whereas, public school teachers are receiving only from $25 to $40 per month and many college professors and instructors from $600 to $1,000 only, the "ordinary clerks" in the state offices are receiving from $1,500 to $2,000 and pronounces this a gross injustice to the public teaching profession that has to have far greater preparation for service.

Wall: Prohibit the sale of merchandise in any state buildings or grounds on Sunday. (Aimed at closing the refreshment stand in the rotunda of the state house on Sundays, the stand being run only during the time the Assembly is in Raleigh.)

Carr, of Duplin: Protect the forests in the state from fire.

Reports of Committees.

Judiciary committee No. 2 reported unfavorably a bill to amend the revival relative to habeas corpus.

Among the bills favorably reported were: Amend the law relative to fertilizers. Amend the Revisal divorce laws. Amend Revisal relative to carrying concealed weapons. Exempt dentists from jury duty. Amend the law of 1900 relative to the seizure of distilleries.

Passed Final Reading.

Amend the law relating to executing titles to real estate by foreign executors.

Amend the law relating to testing the magnetic needle and chains.

Amend rule No. 97 of the Revisal relative to heirship of illegitimates.

Joint resolution regarding investigations suggested by the governor with regard to the report of the board of internal improvements. (Judge Ewart said the resolution ought to pass as it was evident from the report that the state had lost $240,000 in the Lake Mattamuskeet transaction alone.)

VIRGINIA AND SOUTHWESTERN

President Finley Announces the Appointment of Officers.

Washington, Jan. 30.—President Finley, of the Southern Railway Company, and the Virginia & Southwestern Railway Company, today announced the following appointments of officers of the Virginia & Southwestern Railway Company, viz: E. H. Coapman, General Manager, with offices at Washington, D. C.; G. W. Taylor, General Superintendent of Transportation, with office at Washington, D. C.; A. Stewart, General Superintendent of Motive Power and Equipment, with office at Washington, D. C.; D. W. Lum, Chief Engineer Maintenance of Way, with office at Washington, D. C.; G. R. Loyall, General Superintendent, with office at Knoxville, Tenn.; and J. H. McCue, General Agent, with office at Bristol, Va.-Tenn. All of these appointments are effective February 1, 1911.

Mr. McCue is to have jurisdiction of all matters relating to traffic and is to have direct responsibility for all matters relating to the industrial and agricultural development of the territory traversed by the lines of the Virginia & Southwestern Railway. He is also to perform such other duties as may be assigned him by the President or Vice-President of the Company. Mr. McCue is also appointed General Agent of the Southern Railway Company at Bristol, and, as such, will perform such duties as may be assigned him by the President or any Vice-President of the Southern Railway Company.

In making this announcement, President Finley said: "The appointment of the above-named operating officials to the same positions on the Virginia & Southwestern Railway that they hold on the Southern Railway is not made because of any dissatisfaction with the work of the officers who have heretofore been in charge of the operation of the Virginia & Southwestern Railway, but the extension of their jurisdiction over the Virginia & Southwestern is made desirable because of its very close operating relations with the Southern Railway and because the coal mined on the Virginia & Southwestern is so largely marketed within the territory of the Southern Railway, thus making continuous jurisdiction over operation and the movement of trains essential to the most effective service. It has further been found to be necessary on account of the great importance and growth of the territory, to have an officer directly in charge of the industrial and agricultural development work of the Virginia & Southwestern Railway in that territory, and Mr. McCue's long association with the Company and familiarity with the territory peculiarly fit him for this important work."

GOETHE ON HAMLET.

The Great German Poet's Analysis of "The Melancholy Dane."

Figure to yourself this youth, this son of princes; conceive him vividly, bring his state before your eyes and then observe him when he learns that his father's spirit walks. Stand before him in the terror of the night when the venerable spirit appears over him. A horrid shudder passes over him; he speaks to the mysterious form; he sees it beckon to him; he follows it and hears. The fearful accusation of his uncle rings in his ears, the summons to revenge and the piercing oft repeated prayer, "Remember me!"

And when the ghost has vanished who is it that stands before us? A young hero panting for vengeance? No! Trouble and astonishment take hold of the solitary young man. He grows bitter against smiling villains, swears that he will not forget the spirit and concludes with the significant ejaculation:

The time is out of joint. O cursed spite, That ever I was born to set it right!

In these words, I imagine, will be found the key to Hamlet's whole procedure. To me it is clear that Shakespeare meant in the present case to represent the effects of a great action laid upon the soul unfit for the performance of it. In this view the whole piece seems to be composed. There is an oak tree planted in a costly jar which should have borne only pleasant flowers in its bosom; the roots expand, the jar is shattered.—From "Wilhelm Meister."

"I suppose you know who Cinderella is, little boy?"

"Oh, yes," replied the modern urchin. "She's a character in a musical comedy."—Washington Herald.

Mistaken Modesty.

The lesson and significance of an experience incorporated by Mr. Maurice Baring in his book, "Russian Essays and Stories," are undoubtedly the mistake of underrating one's wares. One is likely to be taken at one's word. Once when Mr. Baring was competing in a civil service examination and appeared as a candidate in the German viva voce the German examiner asked him if he could speak German.

"Yes, a little," he answered modestly.

"Oh," said the examiner, "I will then wish you good morning. I will no doubt have the pleasure of seeing you again the next time there is an examination."

The next time there was an examination Mr. Baring presented himself again. The German examiner, who happened to be a different man, asked Mr. Baring if he could speak German. He replied:

"Yes, I speak it as well as Bismarck spoke it, and my written style combines the solidity of Lessing's, the limpidity of Goethe's and the lightness of touch of Heine's, as you have no doubt observed from my written papers."

"Then I need not trouble you any further," said the examiner.

That time Mr. Baring got full marks.

A Camel's Stomach.

The stomach of a camel is divided into four compartments, and the walls of one of these are lined with large cells, every one of which can be opened and closed at will by means of powerful muscles. When a camel drinks it drinks a very great deal. Indeed, it goes drinking on for such a very long time that really you would think that it never meant to leave off. But the fact is that it is not only satisfying its thirst, but is filling up its cistern as well. One after another the cells in its stomach are filled with the water, and as soon as each is quite full it is tightly closed. Then when the animal becomes thirsty a few hours later all that it has to do is to open one of the cells and allow the water to flow out. Next day it opens one or two more cells, and so it goes on day after day until the whole supply is exhausted. In this curious way a camel can live five or even six days without drinking at all and so is able to travel quite easily through the desert, where the wells are often hundreds of miles apart.

A Bit Too Clever.

Holman Hunt used to tell how a carpenter saved one of his best known pictures from a serious error. The man was doing some odd jobs about the house and was found frowning at "The Shadow of the Cross" in the studio—the picture in which Christ, who has been sawing a plank in the workshop, rises to his full height and stretches, his shadow forming a crucifix.

"Well?" asked the artist interrogatively.

"Don't think much of it, mister," was the blunt comment.

"Why?" demanded Hunt, amused, but a trifle nettled.

"Any one that can saw wood without making any sawdust is a sight cleverer'n any I ever seed," was the answer.

It was true—the floor was clean beneath the bench!

HER HOMEMADE HAT.

It Brought a Proposal That She Promptly Turned Down.

The bohemians were making merry in the dim lit studio discussing the latest novel that one of their number was trying to write, the brutal editor who had refused the best article ever written—a masterpiece of the host—be-moaning the nonintelligence of the art critics, execrating the mercenary theatrical manager and utterly repudiating the general public—the vast horde of the Philistines. By way of diversion the painter of pastel portraits said to the bachelor maid:

"That's a charming hat you have on. Who else would know enough to combine turquoise and old rose? You have a genius for color. What a pity you only write!"

"Glad you like my hat, anyway. I made it myself. I trust it will only enhance its merit in your eyes to know that it cost me but 50 cents."

"Impossible!" screamed all the bohemians with one breath, ceasing their arguments in order to take notice of the vastly becoming creation which capped the bachelor maid's brown hair.

"Fifty cents, did you say?" asked the man who once wrote a poem—aye, and had it published. Then rising, placing his hand above his heart, bowing low and solemnly, he said: "Fair one, will you be my wife? All my life I have been looking for a woman who could trim her own hats for nothing. Pray be mine."

"Nixie!" scoffed the bachelor maid cruelly. "All my life I have been looking for a man who would be willing and able to pay $50 for my hats."—New York Press.

FIGHTING LIFE'S BATTLE.

Of Things That Must Be Done Tackle the Hardest First.

I know a very successful man who early in life resolved that no matter how hard anything might be or how seemingly impossible for him to do he would do it if the doing would prove of value to him, says Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine. He made this the test and would never allow his moods or feelings to stand in the way of his judgment. He forced himself in the habit of promptly doing everything, no matter how disagreeable, if it would further his advancement.

People who consult their moods, their preferences or their ease never make a great success in life. It is the man who gets a firm grip on himself and forces himself to do the thing that will ultimately be best for him who succeeds. The man who goes through life picking out the flowers and avoiding the thorns in his occupation, always doing the easy thing first and delaying or putting off altogether if possible the hard thing, does not develop the strength that would enable him to do hard things when necessity forces them upon him.

It is pitiable to see young men and women remaining far below the place where their ability ought to have carried them just because they dislike to do disagreeable things until compelled to. The best way always is to tackle the hardest things first.

Too Public For Him.

He was a mild mannered little man, short, with gray hair and spectacles. It was noon on Washington street, and, as usual, the crowds were showing and pushing to get somewhere. The little man was trying to worm his way through the crowds.

A well dressed woman, accompanied by a small boy, was mixed up in the crowd. She wanted to cross the street. The boy stopped to look in a window.

The lady reached down and grasped a hand, saying, "Take my hand, dear."

"Not right here on the public street," she was startled to hear some one reply.

Looking down, she saw that she was clasping the hand of the very inoffensive little man, who seemed to be much confused and embarrassed.

"Sir," she said haughtily, "I don't want you. I want my son."—Boston Traveler.

The New and Old Geology.

In its early history geology presented two schools—one insisting on a doctrine of "catastrophes," the other on a doctrine of "uniformity." The former regarded the changes which have manifestly taken place in our planet as having occurred at epochs abruptly, while the other school, reposing on the great principle of the invariability of the laws of nature, insisted that affairs had always gone on in the same way as they do now. It is hardly necessary to say that the latter theory has driven the old theory of catastrophe completely from the field.—New York American.

All Fixed.

"I think I'll propose at the party to-night."

"No, you won't."

"Why won't I?"

"My sister knows the young lady in question, and it has been arranged for you to propose at the ball next week."

Some years ago a few gentlemen went to Georgia and engaged in the industry of raising dogs of a fine breed. They have already amassed a small fortune and are still shipping lap dogs and larger specimens to the wealthy ones of Paris, New York and Philadelphia. This is passed on for the benefit of those Western North Carolina farmers who attempted to teach our legislators at Raleigh that wool-raising is more profitable than the dog business.

Congress will perhaps amend the Judiciary Code so as to increase the salaries of United States District Court judges. There is a tendency, too, in some of the State legislatures to raise the salaries of state judges. Perhaps it is right that they should have more, inasmuch as a general salary-raising motion is in order. But if the matter could be held in abeyance until the tariff reductions are in effect, the rest of us who have to shift on about the same salary as last reported would at least be in better position to pay our various proportions.

The Telegram stated Sunday that section 70, of the proposed new charter, was taken from the charter drawn two years ago by City Attorney Shaw. That section of the proposed charter of two years ago was, it is learned, discovered to be unconstitutional and it was the intention of the framers of the instrument to amend it. It seems that the courts have passed several times on the matter of a city's having an assessment different from that of the State and county and have every time declared it unconstitutional. So it is very well that the discussion over section 70 has arisen and that as a result the section will be amended in a way to make it generally satisfactory.

The deadlock in the General Assembly of New York, caused by a failure to elect a Senator, is still unbroken, and Sheehan's friends are growing weary. They announce that they will continue to vote for him another week, but that if he is not elected by that time they will vote for someone else. In the meantime Mr. and Mrs. Sheehan remain right in Albany and are passing much time with their friend, the governor. This method may keep Governor Dix from turning about and adopting the Wilson tactics, but it is not considered wholesome for Mr. Sheehan, as it is believed that the latter is, by his present methods, failing to get further support and is provoking "that tired feeling" among those who have been standing by him so faithfully.

It has been forty-five years since the close of the Civil War and we are still spending for pensions the enormous sum of $150,000,000 per year. The number of pensioners on the roll far outnumber the total soldiery of the Confederacy. And yet there is a bill now pending in Congress for an additional $45,000,000 for this purpose. Thus the farther we get away from war the more does it cost us to dwell in peace. It is to be hoped that if the bill passes without a thorough and most rigid investigation Mr. Taft will promptly veto it and ask that such an investigation be made as will enable the people to know exactly who are the beneficiaries, and to what extent, of this unparalleled expenditure of the public money.

The English suffragettes say that if Parliament does not accede to their demands they may take a notion to make a mess of the coronation proceedings. In fact they have already made their plans to start with the great pageant and procession from Buckingham palace to the House of Parliament, where King George is to be crowned. Mrs. Pankhurst says that suffragettes "love peace, but that they may be forced reluctantly to make themselves disagreeable at a time when the nation should be engaged in patriotic rejoicings." Such a prospect will no doubt move Parliament to grant to the English women what they have been so long clamoring for. It is said that already enough members have declared themselves in favor of female suffrage to insure the success of the measure at the next session.

The government maintains a department of agriculture which is ever busy on behalf of seed culture, the making of bumper crops, stamping out disease among animals, the saving of a million dollars annually by the proper care of bees, etc., while there are upward of 500,000 people in America suffering from tuberculosis in one stage or another; thousands upon thousands of children confined in factories, sweat-shops, and other situations where conditions prevail that are not only not conducive to mental and physical growth, but are in numerous cases confined to close stuffy, ill-ventilated places unfit even for grown people; and while in some of the large cities at least 20 per cent. of the population is dependent on charity for subsistence, and where one baby out of every five dies before it reaches its fifth year. The people must do what they can to maintain organizations for remedying the evils mentioned, while the government is engaged in more wholesome and enjoyable exercise.

TOO MUCH HAMMERING.

A man who makes an enemy has, as a rule, done an evil and a worse than futile day's work; for to win the approval of a friendless and useless man is not only a needless waste of effort, but it is cowardly, and to engender the hatred of a good citizen is to call forth also the ill will of his friends.

Political opinions do not necessarily make or mar a man's character, but to belittle or abuse him because he believes in and fights for political principles different from those of other men claiming to be of the same party can have no other effect than to engender party strife.

The Democratic papers of the country are laboring now for what is at this time of vital interest to every true member of the Democracy—party harmony; but some of them continue thoughtlessly to caricature and ridicule a few members who are not of their way of thinking. No good can be accomplished, particularly at this time, by such a course. To berate and hammer at these individuals tends to make them the more determined, if anything, while at the same time their friends are active against their accusers. If we are to have harmony, this is no time to abuse. Let us wait at least until after 1912. Let up on Mr. Bryan, for instance.

Death in Country.

Miss Katie Gaynor, 64 years of age, died yesterday morning at 12:30 o'clock at her home near Mt. Hope church, death being caused by tuberculosis. The funeral will be held today at 11 a. m. from Lowe's Lutheran church, conducted by Rev. Strickland.

The Wrong Date Used.

In an article by "Grandma" several days ago concerning log school houses the date "70's" was used when it should have been "40's".

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all the other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

FELL AND BROKE BOTH HIS LEGS

Mr. Cyrus Goldie, a carpenter, fell yesterday afternoon at the Southern Power Company's trestle near the water works and broke both legs. He was taken to St. Leo's hospital to receive the necessary treatment. One leg was broken at the knee and the other below the knee. Both fractures were bad ones. Mr. Goldie was also badly bruised and shaken up as a result of his fall which was a distance of fifteen feet. He landed on a pile of boards, which probably made his injuries greater than they would otherwise have been. Drs. Moore and Tankersley attended Mr. Goldie.

The call for drama and books on the drama increases each year in the public library. Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer" is always a very popular volume and there are a number of people reading Shakespeare all the year round.

The demand for modern drama has often been greater than the supply and the appended list is published as timely at this season to show the later plays now to be found on the library shelves. Some of these are books of recent purchase; others were added last summer as a welcome gift from the Friday Afternoon Book Club.

LECTURE ON HOLY LAND.

Mr. Cameron Johnson to Show Stereoscopic Views at West Market Tomorrow Night.

The Ministers' Association desires to call attention to the exceedingly attractive and instructive entertainment-lecture on the Holy Land, which Mr. Cameron Johnson will give under the auspices of the association at West Market Street church tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. The lantern pictures of interesting places in Palestine are said to be the most perfect type. Teachers at the Normal College, where it was given recently, declare that they have seen nothing in this line quite so good at the best Chautauquas. It is the desire of the ministers that their Sunday school workers have the opportunity of learning in this delightful way of important places in the Bible lands. The public is invited, and it is expected that the great auditorium of the church will be filled. A collection will be taken to meet expenses. Prayer meetings at the various churches have been called in.

AN ENJOYABLE BIRTHDAY PARTY

Saturday night from 7 to 11 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Lednum, six miles south of town on the Pleasant Garden road, there was a most delightful reception in honor of the seventeenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Grace. The early part of the evening was spent in the playing of games, which were interspersed with music. At 10 o'clock the guests were invited into the dining room where ice cream, cake and fruits were served. The evening was a most enjoyable one for all present. The guests were as follows:

Misses Ada Michael, Stella Smith, Rachel Tucker, Placie Neely, Pearl O'Connor, Mary Hicks, Ola Whiteley, Mabel Starr, Maggie Weatherly, Neta Kirkman, Maude Kirkman, and Miss Combs; Messrs. Clark Kirkman, Basil Ross, J. C. Ross, Webb Tucker, Roy Bowman, Grady Bowman, Henry Whiteley, Owen Fentress, Oran Fentress, Noel Neely, Thaddeus Weatherly, Jake Kennett, Elmo Michael, J. C. Hockett.

Some Nautical Facts.

A knot is 6,080 feet long. The distance from New York to Liverpool is 3,064 nautical miles by the northern track and 3,139 by the southern track. The former course is taken by vessels bound for New York, the latter by vessels bound for Liverpool. From Liverpool to New York the distances are respectively 3,039 and 3,109 miles.

In estimating records the points taken on either side are Sandy Hook and Daunt's rock, Queenstown harbor. The first light sighted on the British coast is the Bull, Cow and Calf, Ireland, and on the American coast either Nantucket or Fire Island.

He Was Cautious.

Frederick the Great was always fond of disputations, but as he generally terminated the discussion by collaring his antagonist and kicking his shins few of his guests were disposed for an argument. He asked one of his suit why he did not venture to give his opinion on some particular question. "It is impossible, your majesty," was the reply, "to express an opinion before a sovereign who has such convictions and wears such very thick boots."

Live Table Talk.

"I hope you will be interested in yonder gentleman," said the hostess. "I have assigned him to take you out to dinner."

"I shall be," responded the lady addressed. "That gentleman was formerly my husband, and he's behind with his alimony."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

It Often Is.

"I was in hopes when I married that I could give my wife everything she wanted." "Well?" "I didn't think her yearning capacity would be so much greater than my earning capacity."—Washington Herald.

Gives Him No Chance.

"Were you quarrelling with your wife when I came in? I heard you talking loud." "No. When we're quarrelling she's the one that talks."—Cleveland Leader.

Grief is crowned with consolation.—Shakespeare.

CURES PIMPLES QUICKLY

Simple Remedy That Clears Skin Quickly of All Eruptions.

For several weeks past Howard Gardner has done the biggest business he ever had in any one article in selling Hokara, the skin food that has won so many friends in Greensboro.

It has been found to be an absolute cure not only for all minor skin troubles, such as pimples, blackheads, herpes, acne, scaly scalp, complexion blemishes, itching feet, piles, etc., but for the worst sores, ulcers, or even chronic eczema and salt rheum.

In spite of its unusual curative power, the price is trifling. To convince every one of its merits, Howard Gardner will sell a liberal sized jar for 25c; larger sized 50c. And remember that if you do not think it does what it claims, you get your money back. You certainly can afford to try it on this plan.

TESTIMONIAL.

I wish to state for the benefit of anyone suffering from eczema, that I had eczema on my hand for some time and could find nothing that would cure it until I used Hokara. One 25c jar entirely cured me. Wm. Nichols, 621 1-2 Central Ave., Ft. Dodge, Iowa.

Look For the Horse With This Mark on the Toes

There are many kinds of guaranteed hosiery but they are all imitations of the original "Holeproof."

When your husband goes out to buy socks, tell him to insist on "Holeproof"—tell him to look on the toes for our trademark.

This means more than you think—it means that if any holes appear within six months we give you new hosiery free.

But that is not all, the hosiery itself is more stylish and comfortable than any other on the market.

FAMOUS
Holeproof Hosiery
FOR MEN WOMEN AND CHILDREN

The makers use only the finest and softest cotton from Egypt and the Sea Islands. They pay 63 cents a pound, but could buy ordinary cotton at 12 cents a pound.

The yarn is three-ply in the body and doubled to six-ply in the heels, toes and knees. Common hosiery is made of two-ply yarn throughout yet it costs you as much as "Holeproof."

Comfort is supreme in "Holeproof"—the fabric is as soft and smooth as silk. Style is increased for the hosiery is shaped to fit the ankle like a glove fits the hand.

Men's hose come in eleven attractive colors and women's in six. Price $1.50 to $3 a box of six pairs.

Children's hose, in black and tan, at $2 a box of six pairs. Please come in and see this hosiery to-day—it costs no more than the ordinary.

Attractive Title.

The difficulty of using a foreign language was amusingly illustrated when a certain mission started work in China. They were in some perplexity, says Rev. Lord Gascoyne-Cecil in "Changing China," as to the title they should choose for their society. They wanted to convey to the Chinese that their denomination claimed especially to feed the souls of men. They explained all this to an educated Chinaman and quoted well known texts. He immediately wrote down two characters and assured them that they represented what they had said about the spiritual food that they provided and would also be very popular with the Chinese, as indeed it proved. The moment they opened the door of the chapel they were besieged by hundreds of Chinese of the poorer class, who, after listening for a short time, went away discontentedly. The missionaries found out afterward that the title given to them, literally translated, was "health giving free restaurant"—a most attractive title to the hungry Chinese!

Proof of His Generosity.

The teacher had a class in English literature before her. The subject for the day was Gray's "Elegy." She had asked the class to bring in questions on the life of Gray. These questions were to be deposited in a box which was to be opened before the class and each question read aloud. If no one could answer it the one who contributed it was to be called on for the answer.

The first slip drawn out contained this:

"Give a proof of Gray's generosity."

The teacher thought of what a reclusive Gray had been and of how little interest he had ever shown in his fellows, and she wondered how any one could have received the impression that he was generous.

Every one looked blank, and no one attempted to answer. The girl who wrote the question was called on for her "proof," and this is what she said, "He gave to misery all he had—a tear."—National Monthly.

Letters and Postage Stamps.

"Strange ideas some people have about postage," said the clerk who opens the mail. "Yes. See this letter here with three one-cent stamps on it and stamped 1 cent due? That's a case in point. The writer of that letter thought that perhaps it weighed a little over an ounce, a little more than would go for 2 cents, and so he put on a little more postage—1 cent more—which he thought would cover it, when the fact is that it required an additional two cent stamp. Of course you know that letter postage is not fractional, but that it goes in multiples of two. If a letter weighs ever so little over an ounce it requires an additional two cent stamp. But not everybody seems to know this, and so we sometimes get letters like this one with a little more postage for a little more weight."—New York Sun.

A Strange Situation.

"Humor is a very funny thing," said Binks.

"It ought to be," said the philosopher.

"Oh, I don't mean that way," said Binks. "I mean that it is a strange thing. Now, I can't speak French, but I can always understand a French joke, and I can speak English, but I'm bluffed if I can see an English joke."

"Most people are," said the philosopher.

"Are what?" said Binks.

"Bluffed if they can see an English joke," said the philosopher. "It is a sign of an unusually keen vision."—Harper's Weekly.

Force of the Imagination.

There is a story of a man who was tied up in a dark room and informed that he was to be put to death by bleeding. His tormentors made a small incision in his neck and arranged for a stream of lukewarm water to trickle down his back for fifteen minutes. At the end of fifteen minutes the man died of exhaustion. He had not lost a drop of blood, but he thought he had. Such is the power of suggestion.—London Saturday Review.

A RELIABLE COUGH MEDICINE

Is a valuable friend. Foley's Honey and Tar fulfils this condition exactly. Mrs. Charles Kline, N. 8th St., Easton, Pa., states: "Several members of my family have been cured of bad coughs and colds by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar and I am never without a bottle in the house. It soothes and relieves the irritation in the throat and loosens up the cold. I have always found it a reliable cough cure." Howard Gardner.

Many of us are willing to do the rest if we can get anybody to push the button for us.

For LaGrippe, Coughs and Stuffy Colds

Take Foley's Honey and Tar. It gives quick relief and expels the cold from your system. It contains no opiates, is safe and sure. Howard Gardner.

The people who come early to avoid the rush are amazed to find that everybody else does the same thing.

SACKING A THEATER.

Tribulations of the Drama in New York in 1765.

Here is an account of the sacking of a theater in New York from the Gazette of May 3, 1765:

"The play advertised to be acted last Monday evening having given offense to sundry and divers inhabitants of this city, who thought it highly improper that such entertainments should be exhibited at this time of public distress, when great numbers of poor people can scarce find means of subsistence, whereby many persons might be tempted to neglect their business and squander that money which is necessary to the payment of their debts and the support of their families, a rumor was spread about the town that if the play went on the audience would meet with some disturbance from the multitude."

"This prevented the greatest part of those who intended to have been there from going. However, many people came, and the play was begun, but soon interrupted by the multitude, who burst open the doors and entered with noise and tumult. The audience escaped in the best manner they could. Many lost their hats and other articles of raiment. A boy had his skull fractured and was yesterday trepanned. Death is his. Several others were sorely set upon and injured. But we heard of no lives lost. The multitude immediately demolished the house, carried the pieces to the common, where they consumed them in a bonfire."

Saves Two Lives.

"Neither my sister nor myself might be living today, if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery," writes A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C., R. F. D. No. 8, "for we both had frightful coughs that no other remedy could help. We were told my sister had consumption. She was very weak and had night sweats but your wonderful medicine completely cured us both. It's the best I ever used or heard of." For sore lungs, coughs, colds, hemorrhage, la-grippe, asthma, hay fever, croup, whooping cough, all bronchial troubles, it's supreme. Trial bottle free. 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed by Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

A man never realizes the value of plenty of closet room till he acquires a family skeleton.

Old Soldier Tortured.

"For years I suffered unspeakable torture from indigestion, constipation and liver trouble," wrote A. K. Smith, a war veteran at Erie, Pa., "but Dr. King's New Life Pills fixed me all right. They are simply great." Try them for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Only 25c. at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

The only sure thing in betting is the bet you didn't make.

Solves a Deep Mystery.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice, and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c. at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

Life on a Battleship.

To the landlubber one of the peculiar and oftentimes discomforting elements of life on a warship during target practice is the necessity for numerous baths. After each volley all the men on deck must take a bath.

Sometimes there are four or five baths a day. This becomes quite monotonous. The Japanese inaugurated this practice. A bath is taken before and after shooting to guard against possible infection of open scratches and cuts from the flying powder. When the big guns go off the landsman on deck is thrown into consternation. A horrible, sickening wrench makes one feel as if each limb were separately grasped and pulled in various directions, and it is a long time until he gets his "sea legs" again. Life aboard ship is not the ordeal that rumor has characterized it. The hardback legend is erroneous. The sailors are well fed with the best viands procurable, and their bread, far from being hardback, is as good as that which is served in any high class hotel or restaurant.

There is a spirit of good fellowship among the men below decks. Each man has his separate duties definitely designated, and there are no petty jealousies.—J. W. Alde in Leslie's.

No Place For His Talents.

At St. John's a man stowed away upon Harry Whitney's yacht, bound for an arctic hunting trip. He was discovered too late to return him to the little Newfoundland port, but Whitney determined to make him work his passage. He wasn't successful at this, however. The stowaway simply couldn't see any sort of work. Short of personal violence he couldn't be made to button his collar.

"By thunder," Whitney said one day, "I've a notion to leave you here at Etah." The stowaway seemed mournful.

"Bee-hive mub, Mr. Whitney," he said emphatically, "you haven't made me so welcome on board your jiggered old yacht that I want to stay. But what could I do up here?" He swept his hand around at the Eskimo huts, half roof and the rest hole in the ground.

"What is your business, anyhow?" Whitney asked curiously.

"I," said the stowaway, "am a second story worker."—Cincinnati Times-Star.

A Pathetic Banquet.

Jacob A. Rills was discussing in New York his experience as a police reporter.

"They were intense experiences. The pathetic ones had, indeed, such an intensity that they couldn't be used in literature. They'd seem overdrawn. For example, one cold and dreary Thanksgiving evening as I passed a famous restaurant I saw a little urchin standing before the area. Through the area gratings the kitchen, brilliantly illuminated, could be seen. The cook, in his white dress, basted a half dozen great brown birds.

"Hi, Timmy!" the urchin cried, and a second youngster turned toward him. "Hi, Timmy, come an' eat yer crust in the smell from this here kitchen. It makes it taste just like roast turkey."—Detroit Free Press.

TEN THOUSAND DRUGGISTS

Unite in Their Opinion Regarding Certain Medicine.

Druggists should know better than any one else the value of every medicine.

Therefore, when over ten thousand recommend Vinol, the cod liver and iron tonic, without oil, over their own signatures as the greatest tonic restorative and strength creator—and offer to return the purchase money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction. It must indicate that Vinol is a pretty reliable medicine.

We could publish columns of such testimony as the following:

C. A. Potterfield, the leading druggist of Charleston, W. Va., says he used Vinol for every member of his family and has never been disappointed with the results.

Mr. J. F. Bradley, druggist of New Brunswick, N. J., says, "Vinol is certainly a wonderful medicine. He has proved it from personal experience."

The many years that Vinol has been on the market has served to strengthen its popularity, and proved by continued tests that it will do all that is claimed for it.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not build up your strength and give you an added interest in life. Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co., Greensboro, N. C.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average bald-headed man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germ, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

ATHLETICS AT CHAPEL HILL.

Mr. Branch Bocoock to Coach Football Team—Schedule for Baseball Games Include One Here With Virginia.

Chapel Hill, Jan. 30.—Everybody interested in the success of Carolina athletic teams is delighted at the announcement that Mr. Branch Bocoock has signed up to coach the Varsity football team next year. Mr. Bocoock has coached the V. P. I. team for the last two years and has turned out some great teams up there. He is well acquainted with climatic conditions in the South and is better fitted to handle a team of Southern boys than a Northern coach. He graduated from Georgetown University where he also studied law until he received his license.

Manager E. F. McCulloch has announced the schedule for the baseball team. There are 23 games, 11 of which are to be played in Chapel Hill. Oak Ridge, Wake Forest, Davidson, Guilford, South Carolina, V. P. I. and the University of Virginia, all have arranged games. The two Virginia games will be played in Greensboro and Charlotte, April 8 and 10, and the third game in Charlottesville April 21. The outlook for material for the team to play this schedule is very poor. Only one member of last year's team is back sure that he will play his position. This is Captain Hackney, of Wilson.

Foley's Kidney Remedy—An Appreciation

L. McConnell, Catherine St., Elmira, N. Y., writes: "I wish to express my appreciation of the great good I derived from Foley's Kidney Remedy, which I used for a bad case of kidney trouble. Five bottles did the work most effectively and proved to me beyond doubt it is the most reliable kidney medicine I have ever taken." Howard Gardner.

A SURPRISE MARRIAGE.

Mr. Willis Booth and Miss Mabel Lineberry Wedded Last Friday Night. Mr. Willis Booth and Miss Mabel Lineberry, of Millboro, were united in marriage last Friday night at 9 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. P. C. Battle, Railroad avenue. The news of their marriage comes as a distinct surprise to their many friends for while it was known that a wedding was being planned no one expected the event to occur at so early a date.

Miss Lineberry, accompanied by her sister, Miss Sallie, came to Greensboro Friday afternoon to do some shopping, stopping with relatives. Friday night while en route to an amusement theatre Mr. Booth and Miss Lineberry decided that there was no time like the present and instead of entering the theatre hid away to the home of Rev. Mr. Battle who soon performed the ceremony. They then returned to the moving picture show and were able to rejoin their companions without leaving the trace of a suspicion that they had not actually attended the show.

The secret was not let out until Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Booth's sister was preparing to return home. Mrs. Booth informed her that she was going to remain in Greensboro in the future and gave her reason.

There was no objection to the marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Booth simply wishing to avoid the formalities of a wedding, and enjoy the romance of a surprise marriage.

Mrs. Booth is a daughter of Capt. and Mrs. W. S. Lineberry and is a charming and accomplished young lady. She had many friends in Greensboro, where she has often visited relatives and friends. Mr. Booth is a deputy to Register of Deeds Rankin and is held in confidence and esteem by the many patrons of the office as well as by score of friends throughout the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Booth are living at 320 North Greene street.

UNIQUE STORIES OF PENNSYLVANIA CRIME

Startling Series of Readable Articles For North American Readers.

That "truth is stranger than fiction" is no empty saying is apparently to have strong exemplification in a series of articles soon to be published in Sunday issues of the Philadelphia North American. The first will appear next Sunday, February 5.

Under the general caption, "Pennsylvania's Greatest Crime Mysteries," one of the articles will appear each week. Crimes that have been the talk of counties for years will be attractively presented, with a view to bringing out the noteworthy features rather than to repeat the horrible details.

Each article will be clothed with the charm of graphic presentation and will read as engagingly as the works of the writers of the great detective stories.

The articles will have historical value in that they will present in concise and complete form the facts that became known piecemeal at the time of the occurrences treated. The series will be of especial value to those who are making a study of criminal law and to those who study the causes and consequences of crime.

The first article of The North American series will deal with "The Murder Mystery of Baer's Woods," the crime that ranks as the most mysterious in the history of Chester county—one in which two men gambled for high stakes, a life and a fortune on the table.

One May Overcome

constipation permanently by proper personal co-operation with the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, when required. The forming of regular habits is most important and while endeavoring to form them the assistance of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is most valuable, as it is the only laxative which acts without disturbing the natural functions and without debilitating and it is the one laxative which leaves the internal organs in a naturally healthy condition, thereby really aiding one in that way. To get its beneficial effects, buy the genuine manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and for sale by all leading druggists. Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna is never classed by the well-informed with medicines which make extravagant and unfounded claims to cure habitual constipation without personal co-operation.
